

The movie that is anti-John Keyyr that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring their stations to air is NOT news. It's not remotely connected to news. It's nothing but propaganda propogated by the pro-Bush people.

Sinclair Broadcasting should not be allowed to broadcast this movie as news. If they show this blatantly anti-Kerry movie, in the cause of a fair and open media and discourse, they must then show another movie from the pro-Kerry side and give equal time to this effort.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
